- A. The Corporation may indemnify a person who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding because the person is or was a trustee of the corporation only if it is determined in accordance with paragraph E of this Section 7.01 that the person:
- (1) conducted himself or herself in good faith;
 - (2) reasonably believed:
 - (a) in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity as a trustee of the corporation, that his or her conduct was in the corporation's best interest; and
 - (b) in all other cases, that his or her conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation's best interest; and
 - (3) in the case of any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.
- B. A trustee may not be indemnified under Paragraph A of this section 7.01 for obligations resulting from a proceeding:
- (1) in which the person is found liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him or her, or
 - (2) in which the person is found liable to the corporation.
- C. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction, or on a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not of itself determinative that the person did not meet the requirements set forth in Paragraph A of this Section 7.01.
- D. A person may be indemnified under Paragraph A of this Section 7.01 against judgments, penalties (including excise and similar taxes), fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses actually incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding; but if the proceeding was brought in by or in behalf of the corporation, the indemnification is limited to reasonable expenses actually incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding.

E. A determination of indemnification under Paragraph A of this Section 7.01 must be made:

- (1) by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of trustees who at the time of the vote are not named defendants or respondents in the proceeding;
- (2) if such quorum cannot be obtained, by a majority vote of a committee of the board of trustees, designated to act in the matter by a majority vote of all trustees, consisting solely of two or more trustees who at the time of the vote are not named defendants or respondents in the proceeding;
- (3) by special legal counsel selected by the board of trustees or a committee of the board by vote as set forth in subparagraph (1) or (2) of this Section 7.01 E., or, if such a quorum cannot be obtained and such a committee cannot be established, by a majority vote of all trustees; or
- (4) by the members in a vote that excludes the vote of trustees who are named defendants or respondents in the proceeding.

F. Authorization of indemnification and determination as to reasonableness of expenses must be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that if the determination that indemnification is permissible is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and determination as to reasonableness of expenses must be made in the manner specified by subparagraph (3) of Section 7.01 E. hereof for the selection of special legal counsel.

G. The corporation shall indemnify a trustee against reasonable expenses incurred by him or her in connection with a proceeding in which he or she is a party because he or she is a trustee if he or she has been wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of the proceeding.

H. Reasonable expenses incurred by a trustee who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding may be paid or reimbursed by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding after: (i) the corporation receives a written affirmation by the trustee of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification under this Section 7.01 and a written undertaking by or on behalf of the trustee to repay the amount paid or reimbursed if it is ultimately determined that he or she has not met those requirements; and (ii) a determination that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under this Section 7.01-1.

I. The written undertaking required by paragraph H of this Section 7.01 must be an unlimited general obligation of the trustee but need not be secured. It may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment. Determinations and authorizations of payments under paragraph H of this Section 7.01 must be made in the manner specified by paragraph E of this Section 7.01 for determining that indemnification is permissible.

- J. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 7.01, the corporation may pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a trustee in connection with his appearance as a witness or other participation in a proceeding at a time when he or she is not a named defendant or respondent in the proceeding.
- K. An officer of the corporation shall be indemnified as, and to the same extent, provided in paragraph G or this Section 7.01 for a trustee and is entitled to seek indemnification under that paragraph to the same extent as a trustee. The corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee, or agent of the corporation to the same extent that it may indemnify and advance expenses to trustees under this Section 7.01.
- L. The corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to a person who is not or was not an officer, employee or agent of the corporation but who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a trustee, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee, employee, agent, or similar functionary of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise to the same extent that it may indemnify and advance expenses to trustees under this Section 7.01.
- M. The corporation shall purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a trustee, officer employee or agent of the corporation or who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a trustee, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee, employee, agent, or similar functionary of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in such a capacity or arising out of his or her status as such a person, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against that liability under this Section 7.01.
- N. As used in these bylaws, the following terms have the meanings set forth below:
- (1) "Corporation" includes any domestic or foreign predecessor entity of the corporation in a merger, consolidation, or other transaction in which the liabilities of the predecessor are transferred to the corporation by operation of law and in any other transaction in which the corporation assumes the liabilities of the predecessor but does not specifically exclude liabilities that are the subject matter of this Section 7.01.
